

TEMECULA VALLEY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

1919 Newspaper Articles & Gossip Columns

September 20, 1919

Mrs. J. E. Freeman and R. M. Estrada, a Mexican, left last week Wednesday. Nobody knows where they went. Mrs. Freeman has a good husband and three as nice children as any mother could desire

Mrs. Julia Vejar returned home from Hemet and Banning the first of the week where she had been visiting her children who had been attending school there.

The little Temecula School began its session for the year on Monday, September 16, with James Rawson as teacher.

Chris Poyerena of Whittier and Albert Guasti of Los Angeles were first of the week visitors of Mrs. Nieves Poyerena. They motored through the country and were very much interested in the fields of alfalfa and cattle in the valley. This valley grows some of the finest alfalfa in Southern California and some of the fine cattle, too.

Mrs. Joe Estrada and baby are visitors at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Magee.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bender and son Donald moved to Anaheim the last of the week. Mr. Bender while here was employed by the Santa Fe.

Miss Sarah Lisalda of San Jacinto is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Marago (Maruffo?). Mrs. John B. Kelly returned home from Los Angeles the last of the week.

Mrs. J. C. Rodriguez of Santa Ysabel was a visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Banks. V. James of Murrieta was a business caller at Knott's garage the first of the week.

Ferrell Freeman left for Los Angeles Monday afternoon, and from there he expects to go to the Imperial Valley.

A truckload of Indian children from the Pala reservation went through town on their way to the Sherman school, Riverside, the first of the week.

The Union school began its session Monday with Miss Alma Wilson as principal and Miss Frances Powell as the second teacher.

Elmer O. O'Connell made a business trip to Los Angeles the first of the week.

Mrs. Albert Banks and daughter Esther motored to Pala Sunday.

Mrs. Schlotte of Alamos was this week a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Machado.

Mr. and Mrs. Liney D. Helm of the Pauba Ranch moved to their place in town, so that their children can attend school. Roy G. Fernald and Arthur Escallier motored to Riverside Sunday. Mr. Fernald is learning to drive his new car.

Miss Esilda Cantarini left for Riverside Monday noon, where she will attend the Sherman school at Arlington this winter.

Joseph M. Nicolas and family of Los Cholas Ranch were business callers in town the first of the week.

Mrs. James O. Freeman and children and Mrs. Rosa Arviso and children spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Felip Cazas.

Miss Ethel Hall returned home from Los Angeles the last of the week. She spent a few days there visiting relatives and friends.

William T. Barton has the contract to haul the children to the Union school.

J. E. Freeman left for Los Angeles the last of the week and will be gone for some time. He is looking after business interests.

A fine lot of cattle from Warner's ranch were shipped Wednesday, from here to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Nieves Poyerena, who is spending a few days here, has taken a great interest in gathering Indian relics for her collection at her home at Whittier. Mrs. Poyerena is a newcomer here and she intends taking back with her many Indian curios.

Miss Modesto Contreras left for Riverside on the noon stage. She will attend the Sherman school at Arlington.

George Marago (Maruffo?), who went to San Jacinto a few days ago, returned home the last of the week with a load of hay.

Charles McVicker and Dr. H. D. Wilson are again on the mountains deer hunting.

Mr. Smith of Hemet, brother of Lynn Smith is employed at William Friedemann's meat market.

October 3, 1919

Juan Munoa, formerly from Temecula now living at Vista, arrived in town Saturday on business and also visited some of his friends.

Road master Charles Clogston started last week to paint the bridges and rails along the road; it will take him several weeks.

Tom Arviso, government farmer at the Pechanga Indian reservation made a business trip to Riverside and Arlington the first of the week.

Fred Provost, harness maker at Murrieta was in town the last of the week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hunter and Mrs. Griselda Medran of Los Angeles, who for the past two weeks were visiting at their uncle's farm, left for their home in Los Angeles the last of the week.

Alfred Knott made a business trip to Hemet the latter part of the week returning late at night.

Last Thursday two aviators, who were on their way to Banning from Los Angeles, lost their way and landed at the Pauba Ranch.

John Wentworth, an old settler of Oak Grove, was in town last week looking after business interests.

Cal Waggoner of Los Angeles, a few days ago succeeded Bob North as foreman of the Pauba Ranch.

Mary Fisher, of Fallbrook, is employed at the lunchrooms as waitress.

Francis Shain spent a short visit with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Barton

Manuel Contreras left for Los Angeles the last of the week, where he will attend school this coming winter. He will reside at the home of his sister.

Mrs. Alfred Knott, who is staying with her parents at Murrieta, has been in bad health for the past year.

Richard Machado and family left for their home in Los Angeles the last of the week after spending a week at the home of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Machado.

Friday and Saturday there was a big fire raging at Dipping Springs. A great deal of wood and pastures belonging to the Pauba Ranch were destroyed, but no other damage was done. A large number of men fought the fire, finally getting it under control and putting it out.

Last week Mrs. George Studley had the misfortune of running a needle into her hand while doing the washing. She had to be taken to the doctor at Oceanside, the needle was taken out and at present she is feeling better.

Dr. L. L. Roripaugh of Auld was a business visitor in town the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ricardo E. Cantarini returned home Saturday from Bakersfield, where they had gone some time ago on a business trip.

Ervine Laughead, who a few weeks ago married Mrs. Schumate, will make their future home at San Marcos.

Arthur Escallier is again attending high school at Elsinore, making the trips from here by auto every morning.

The school at the Little Temecula has not begun its session yet as the trustees so far have been unable to get a teacher, but hope to have one in the near future.

Leon Serval was in town Saturday buying lumber to repair his barn to store his hay and grain before the rains set in.

Mrs. Machado and Mrs. Schlotte, of Alamos, drove to Fallbrook the first of the week, where they made a short visit at the home of Mrs. Machado's sister.

Henry Gray returned from San Diego the other day. He went there with his truck loaded with hogs.

The Temecula Valley Garage are expert machinists and guarantee their work. They carry a display advertisement on this page inviting you to call. People generally go where they are invited.

October 10, 1919

Eli E. Barnett has sold his alfalfa hay and has been hauling and shipping it this week.

Tom Scott, since he resigned as bookkeeper at the Pauba Ranch, is now living in town and is still assisting cashier at the bank.

Ed Vail of Los Angeles was in town and at the Pauba Ranch the other day looking after business.

Hugo Guenther of Murrieta Hot Mineral Springs was a business caller at the bank Wednesday.

Mrs. John B. Kelly returned home the last of the week from the northern part of the state and visited with her sister and brother-in-law. She spent almost one month in her extended trip.

Albert Golsh of Pala spent several days of this week in town looking after business.

The Moons moving picture circuit, which is given at the dancing pavilion once every week, is well patronized by the town people and the surrounding country. Since started here a month ago they have had a full house. They show some of the best films that he can procure.

Mrs. Alfred Knott and the babies who are staying at the home of her parents in Murrieta were here Saturday spending the day at her home. Mrs. Knott at present looks much better and is expecting to come home in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Magee of Pala, who is interested in the Magee quarry near Rainbow, were at dinner at the Camacho restaurant the last of the week.

John Benson, who for the past six weeks has been working at the ranch of Hugh Magee, spent a few days in Los Angeles, returning to his work Monday.

The scales belonging to the Escallier Bros., and which were out of commission for some time are being repaired so that the trucks which are hauling rock from Pala can have their loads weighed instead of going across the bridge, which is unhandy on account of the weighing of the beets.

Last Sunday the Temecula baseball team went to San Jacinto where they met the San Jacinto team in a very interesting and exciting ball game. From the first inning the score was a tie up to the tenth inning when the home team went to pieces and the visitors got away with the game by the score of 14 to 11 in Temecula's favor. Some game, I'll tell you.

October 17, 1919

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swanguen of the Eli E. Barnett ranch were guests for dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Friedemann Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rail of Murrieta and Mrs. Alfred Knott, who is staying with her parents at Murrieta came to spend the day with Mr. Knott.

Mrs. Mabel Peiper of Ocean Beach spent a few days at her brother's home, Liney D. Helm's and at Mr. Lizzie M. Hall. Mrs. Peiper returned home Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ventura Arviso motored to Pala Sunday where they attended mass and also had their baby baptized.

Frank Ramos, a very promising young man, left for San Bernardino the first of the week to work for the Santa Fe.

William H. Haynes, our popular conductor is off duty for a short time. Mr. and Mrs. Haynes left Wednesday for a few days trip.

P. R. Dyck of Los Angeles is cashier at the bank in the absence of Mr. Greenfield, who is in Los Angeles.

B. B. Higgins has been busy all this week hauling wood to town from his ranch at Happy Valley.

George T. Hall and Henry Gray made a trip to San Diego the first of the week with a load of hogs.

Parks' cattleman of Cahuilla brought in a large number of cattle Thursday, which he shipped, to Los Angeles.

Mrs. Ricardo E. Cantarini was a weekend visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Camacho.

Henry Gray, who has the contract of hauling stone from the Pala mines, had two men repairing the scales belonging to the Escallier brothers.

One day last week a baby girl was born to Mrs. Julia Vejar the home Pat Speziali. We heard the baby weighed nine pounds.

A large number from here attended the fair at Riverside.

Mr. and Mrs. Stoner of Murrieta were in town Thursday to look after business interests.

Bob North, who recently resigned as foreman of the Pauba Ranch, is now making his home in town.

Ed Greenfield, cashier at the First National Bank, left for Los Angeles the first of the week.

Charles Hadsall of Murrieta was a business caller in town last week.

The school at Little Temecula is still closed owing to the fact that the trustees have been unable to engage a teacher.

October 24, 1919

Mrs. J. C. Rodriguez left for Riverside Sunday on the Pickwick, at which place she spent Monday shopping.

Jacques Escallier, who a few weeks ago had a stork of paralysis and came very near passing away was taken to the Hot Springs at Murrieta. We learn that he is improving very slowly, but hopes he will entirely recover.

John Wentworth of Oak Grove was in town the last of the week on business.

Sunday afternoon at the Murrieta Hot Springs a game of baseball was played between San Jacinto and Temecula. The visitors played such a poor game and made so many errors that it was an easy victory for Temecula.

Last Sunday Joseph had two distinguished visitors who were entertained at dinner served at the Hall lunchrooms. The visitors were George McManus, funny writer for the Sunday Examiner and Herriman, the cartoonist for the Examiner. After dinner they were taken to the hills where they spent the afternoon shooting quail. They are great sports as well as newspapermen.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Roripaugh of Auld were in town the last of the week. Mrs. Roripaugh was shopping while Mr. Roripaugh was looking after business interests.

One night last week John Magee, who lives about two miles south of town, had the misfortune to lose nearly all his chickens. Some one came to the chicken house and took nearly all of them. They are unable to find out who did it. Mr. Magee lost about three dozen.

Mrs. J. C. Rodriguez and children will leave in a few days for Lakeside, San Diego County, where her husband is employed. She is stopping at her parents' home.

The school at Little Temecula began its sessions a week ago last Monday, about three weeks late. The trustees were unable to get a teacher sooner.

The opening of the quail and duck hunting season brought into town a large number of hunters from Los Angeles, Riverside and other nearby towns. This part of the country is good for quail hunting and for several days the town was alive with hunters.

Last week the Pauba Ranch Company drove several hundred head of cattle to Beaumont from where they will be shipped to Imperial Valley to their ranch they bought recently.

James O. Freeman, Albert Banks and George Studley made a business trip to Hemet last Thursday.

Mrs. Frances McCarrell of Aguanga was in town the first of the week looking after business interests, and while here she visited with Mrs. Lizzie M. Hall.

Recently we learned that Ed Greenfield is getting along finely after the operation. It will be remembered that a few weeks ago he had to go to Los Angeles for medical aid, and it is hoped that in a few weeks more he will be coming home.

Ormiston Gonzalez is through with his beets. He had a very good crop.

October 31, 1919

Mrs. Schlotte of Alamos was a visitor for a few days this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Machado.

Ventura Arviso is having a well drilled at his place.

Mrs. William Friedemann entertained a few of the ladies that are connected with the moving picture company, which is working here one evening at her home. The ladies were very much pleased. They were treated to home made candy.

Frank Ramos, who is employed at San Bernardino by the Santa Fe, returned home the other day. He was suddenly taken ill.

You can call Joe Winkels square head, flat foot or anything you can think of. Nevertheless Joe is a good scout and always ready to wait on any one that comes into his refreshment parlors. Joe has given his establishment that historical name, "Ramona Inn" which brings to old timers memories of long ago.

William Friedemann, proprietor of the meat market, brought a load of hogs of Kuenrich of the Ramona Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Buck of Auld were shopping in town the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hamilton of San Jacinto were first of the week visitors at the Escalliers, returning home in the evening.

Mrs. Charles Young of Perris, made a brief visit at her sister's Mrs. Arviso, the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Bergman of Aguanga were shopping in town Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. U. K. Tarwater of Murrieta were visitors in town last Monday.

Luis Utt, a very successful farmer of Agua Trivia Ranch, was a business caller in town the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Guenther of the Murrieta Mineral Hot Springs were in town Monday. Mr. Guenther was transacting business at the bank, while Mrs. Guenther was visiting friends.

Mac Machado went to Riverside Wednesday on business.

Pete Matson went to Los Angeles the last of the week on business concerning 160 acres of government land at the foot of Smith Mountain.

Adrian B. Barnett is just now getting things ready to improve his irrigation system. He will have cement pipe in the ground instead of the surface pipe.

Charles Swain and Phillip Monua stopped in town over night on their way from Vista to Murrieta with two loads of hay.

In spite of the threatening weather last Saturday, a large number of people from here and the Pauba Ranch spent the day at Hemet where some very interesting events were pulled off.

Mrs. J. C. Rodriguez and children left the first of the week for Lakeside to join her husband who is employed there at a large quarry.

Last week Albert Banks, while on his way from Riverside, had the misfortune of damaging his car. It was so badly damaged that he had to leave it at the garage at Perris and hired another car to come home.

R. M. Estrada of Los Nietos was in town last week for a short time visiting old friends. Mr. Estrada at one time was interested in the pool hall that was closed recently.

Mr. McLaughlin of the Valley Garage, left for Los Angeles Saturday afternoon on a business trip.

Mrs. Dunbar and baby spent a few days of last week visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Studley at the Pauba Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winkels and baby of Spokane, Washington, arrived in town the last of the week and are staying at the home of Mrs. Winkels' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacques Escallier.

November 7, 1919

Parks of Cahuilla arrived in town Monday afternoon with a bunch of cattle, which were bought by James Thomas. They were shipped to Pomona.

William Friedemann recently purchased a new Dodge, which will be used in connection with the meat market. It is much better than the old car, which was used.

The Valley Garage is again vacated, the young man who came here a month ago to open it, having gone. This garage has been opened by three different parties in a short time.

James Thomas, cattle buyer of Pomona, was in town and at the Pauba Ranch, the first of the week. Mr. Thomas comes here often to buy cattle.

Mrs. Julia Vejar, children, and Mrs. Mary Freeman were first of the week visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ventura Arviso.

Mrs. Frances McCarrell of Aguanga, who for the past two weeks has been employed at the lunchrooms, went home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winkels of Spokane, Washington, who are here on a brief visit, and Bessie and Alex J. Escallier, spent Sunday at the beach.

Recently we learned that Ed Greenfield, whom a few weeks ago went to Los Angeles for medical aid and had an operation performed, is almost well and is expected home some time this week.

Last Sunday afternoon word was received here that Soters Amago was killed near the Agua Trivia Ranch. While rounding a curb he met a rig coming up and Amago lost control of his car and went over the bank, which is about a hundred feet high. It is believed that he died instantly, the remains being taken to La Jolla where his parents live. He leaves a mother, three sisters, and two brothers.

Frank Camacho, who was working at the Pauba Ranch, last week quit and now is employed by B. B. Higgins, who is road master of the Pala grade, San Diego county.

The dance last Saturday night was a great success. The large dancing hall was crowded to the very limit. For these dances the best of music is always engaged and everybody is always welcome to attend these dances.

Lonzo Meek is now employed at the Friedemann meat market.

Jacques Escallier, who a few weeks ago had a stroke of paralysis and was taken to the Hot Springs, was brought home a few days ago. He is getting better very slowly.

B. B. Higgins of the Happy Valley Ranch was a caller in town this week.

Clinton Tripp and Otto, both of Aguanga, were in town the last of the week looking after business interests.

Pete Matson and John Johnson, who have claimed a section of government land near the Magee ranch at the foot of Smith Mountain, came to town the other day to get supplies.

Liney D. Helm and Pat Speziali went to San Bernardino Monday morning returning home Tuesday night.

Recently we learned that Tom Scott is likely to leave Temecula at an early date. Tom came here from Alessandro where had been employed as agent for the Santa Fe railroad company for eleven years and was transferred to the station at Temecula where he served as agent and operator for one year and then resigned to take a job as time-keeper at the Pauba Ranch for the Vail company, where he worked for two years. He also held the position of assistant cashier at the First Nation Bank, Temecula, for the past two years. It is quite likely that Tom will seek employment in other fields. He has filed an application for a position at the Ramona Inn to serve cigars tobaccos and soft drinks. Tom Scott is a good old soul and whenever he goes he makes friends.

Jane Abel of Rainbow was a business caller in town the first of the week.

Mrs. George Studley and children of the Pauba Ranch were visitors at the Dunlap's Monday afternoon.

November 14, 1919

Mrs. John Cantarini of Alamos was in town the first of the week calling on friends and doing shopping.

Mrs. John B. Kelly, who has been in Los Angeles came last week for a few days stay at her home and returned to Los Angeles Tuesday morning for another two or three weeks stay there.

Frank Ramos, who was a sailor in the recent world war, went to Riverside Tuesday morning to take part in the parade.

Mr. Palmer, Santa Fe agent here is ill. He came a few months ago from Wildomar where he held a similar position.

Miss Mary Fisher, who is employed at the lunchrooms, made a short visit at her home at Fallbrook the first of the week.

Hookey, the barber, who for the past year has faithfully trimmed and shaved his fellow man's hair and beards, left for Los Angeles the first of the week where he will spend most of his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap spent a few days of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Studley at the Pauba Ranch.

Dr. J. A. Sturgess of Murrieta was a caller at the bank the first of the week.

Tom Arviso who was government farmer at the Pechanga reservation and who is now at Pala doing some work was in town Saturday and Sunday calling on friends.

E. Buck of Auld was in town Thursday looking after business interests.

Owing to the cold weather the moving picture shows are now held at the bank hall instead of at the dancing pavilion.

Frank A. Burnham is a happy man because the other day he bought a new Ford touring car.

The Vail Company has at the Pauba Ranch a large force of men building cement pipes, which in the near future will be laid in different parts of the ranch for irrigation purposes. When the work is completed it will be a great improvement for the ranch and much credit for the Vail Company.

Ed Greenfield, cashier at the First National bank, returned home last Wednesday from Los Angeles where he had gone a few weeks ago for medical treatment. He underwent an operation, which was successfully performed. Mr. Greenfield is looking well and in a few days will resume his duties at the bank.

George Hall returned to the Pauba Ranch Friday evening from Imperial, where he went last week, taking care of a trainload of cattle belonging to the Vail Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Diaz of the Pauba Ranch left for Los Angeles Saturday on the morning train, returning home Sunday on the Pickwick.

Ed Vail of Los Angeles, for the past week has been at the ranch and in town looking after business interests.

Otto of Aguanga was in town the last of the week on business.

Tuesday all business in town was suspended in commemoration of the signing of the armistice.

Al Knott has engaged for his garage a new mechanic who came here last week from Texas.

James O. Freeman, Liney D. Helm and Luis Cazas left the first of the week for the mountains beyond Santa Rosa, where Freeman and Helm have their cattle. They are going to move them to other pastures.

November 21, 1919

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fickelsworth, formerly foreman at the Pauba Ranch stopped in town the first of the week.

Mrs. Alfred Knott, who has been on the sick list for the past year and who has been staying with her parents at Murrieta is at her home now and almost well.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winkels and Bessie Escallier motored to San Jacinto this week where they spent the day visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hamilton.

Arthur Serval, who is interested in some granite quarries at Perris, was in town Saturday and visited Jacques Escallier, who has been ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Serval and children were Sunday visitors in town.

Henry Gray, owner of the trucks that are hauling rock from the Pala mines, returned from San Diego the other day, where he had gone a few days ago with a truck load of rock and grain.

The last of the week another carload of lumber arrived for Albert F. Nienke, who is doing a good lumber and cement business.

Henry Magee, who a year ago was appointed superintendent at the Pauba Ranch, recently resigned his position to attend his own ranch. Mr. Magee's services at the ranch were unsurpassed and many of his friends are sorry that he has severed his connection with the Pauba Ranch.

Mrs. Lola Cantarini of Alamos was in town the first of the week shopping and attending to business interests.

For the past few weeks, Mr. R. J. Welty has been under the weather, but is feeling much better.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Knott motored to Oceanside Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Burnham and daughter Ethel, returned home the last of the week from their trip to Mr. Burnham's old home in Iowa. They spent a few weeks visiting the most interesting places. On their return trip they came through the southern part of the states.

Joseph E. Freeman made a business trip to Riverside, remaining for two days.

Liney D. Helm and James O. Freeman returned from the Santa Rosa Mountains where they keep their cattle.

R. V. Brown of the Bakersfield was in town one day this week looking after business interests.

P. E. Dyek of Los Angeles, who has been cashier at the bank in the absence of Mr. Greenfield, left for Los Angeles the last of the week as Mr. Greenfield has resumed his duties as cashier.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap moved to the Pauba Ranch Saturday. Mr. Dunlap works there.

Pat Speziali is now fixed to drill wells recently having had his well drilling rig fixed. He has started his first well at the place of Ventura Arviso and has already half a dozen wells to drill right here in town.

B. B. Higgins of the Happy Valley Ranch is again coming to town with truckloads of wood for his customers.

November 28, 1919

Albert Banks motored to Hemet the last of the week accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. D. Albanas who remained there.

Miss Ethel Walters, who for the past year attended school at Pomona, returned home the last of the week.

P. T. Hoffman, superintendent of the Pala Indian Reservation, stopped in town for a short time the first of the week.

Mrs. Ricardo E. Cantarini motored to Cahuilla Monday morning to look after his cattle.

Frances McCarrell and Otto, both of Aguanga, were in town Tuesday on business.

John Wentworth of Oak Grove was in town the first of the week.

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winkels and baby, Bessie Escallier and Ole Larsen motored to San Diego and Tia Juana where they spent a very pleasant outing returning home the next day.

Mr. Sands, who was an operator at Perris for the Santa Fe is station agent here. He came here when Mr. Palmer was taken sick.

Mrs. Lulu McCarrell of Aguanga, on her way to Hemet the last of the week stopped in town long enough to say hello to Mrs. Lizzie M. Hall.

Jean Nicolas of Alamos was a caller in town the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ludy of Rainbow were in town Saturday.

M. Kuenrick owner of the Ramona Ranch near Aguanga, going through from Los Angeles this week, stopped in town to buy groceries for the large force of men that are employed.

Mrs. Fisher and daughter, Dolly of Fallbrook, were first of the week guests of Mrs. Fisher's daughter and Dolly's sister, Miss Mary Fisher who is employed at the lunchrooms.

J. M. Nicolas of Los Choyas Ranch came into town Sunday, driving his car, which has been overhauled.

For the past week Albert Banks has been at Long Valley repairing his barn and farm implements and getting ready to start seeding.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Buck of Auld were in town Saturday.

L. L. Roripaugh of Auld was in town the last of the week on business.

Last week the ambulance from Pomona brought the remains of Camilia Trujillo, who died there last year a victim of the influenza. Interment was made at the Pechanga cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Winkels, after spending a two weeks' stay at the home of Mrs. Winkels parents, left for their home at Spokane, Washington, the first of the week.

December 12, 1919

Albert Banks made a business trip to Riverside Saturday.

George Hall spent a few days at Los Angeles this week going there for medical aid.

Curtis Stevenson, who has been sick for the past year with tuberculosis, died the first of the week. The funeral was held at the Pechanga church and interment was made at the Pechanga cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Higgins, who were married a short time ago have returned after a brief honeymoon and will make their home here.

Charles McVicar went to Riverside the first of the week, looking after business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. William Friedemann and son Bill and Mrs. P. V. Swanguen motored to San Diego Sunday.

Mrs. Frances McCarrell of Aguanga was a visitor at Mrs. Hall's the first of the week.

Tom Scott went to San Diego the first of the week on business.

Pat Speziali is now drilling a well for Friedemann at the slaughterhouse below town.

Mrs. John B. Kelly, who for the past few weeks has been at Los Angeles under the doctor's care, returned home last week and is feeling much better.

Mark M. Robertson of Sage was a business caller in town the first of the week.

Carl Swanguen and family, who for the past year were living on land leased at the Eli E. Barnett ranch, last week moved to Frank Hall's 40-acre ranch where he expects to farm this coming season.

Mr. and Mrs. Ricardo E. Cantarini left for Cahuilla the last of the week taking their cattle where they have leased a section of land, which they will use to pasture their stock.

A few days ago we learned of the death of George Hegel at Los Angeles. Mr. Hegel a few months ago was doing business here, conducting the Valley Garage, but owing to his ill health had to close the garage and went to Los Angeles where he lived. He had many friends here who sympathized with the rest of his family.

Mr. and Mrs. James O. Freeman and Mrs. Louisa Cazas went to Riverside the last of the week where they visited the hospital where Juan Olivera is a patient.

Tom Arviso, who at present is employed at Pala, spent Thanksgiving at the home of his brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Miranda, Lupe Maruffo, Sarah and Jessie Lisalda motored to San Jacinto the last of the week, where they spent Sunday visiting relatives and friends.

The fore part of the week, Mr. Knott was confined to his room for a few days suffering with a heavy cold. At present he is up and around, but feeling quite weak after the effects of the illness.

Mrs. Grant Howard returned home the first of the week from Los Angeles, where she had gone on business.

Owing to the rainy weather on Thanksgiving Day the town people had to stay and had their dinners at home.

Jim LaRue of Oak Grove was in town the last of the week buying lumber to do some repairs at his ranch before the rainy weather sets in.

Henry Gray, who has the contract to haul rock from the Pala mines recently bought a new truck at San Diego. Higgins, who is a truck driver for Henry Gray, and Miss Mary Fisher, who was employed at the lunchrooms, were recently married at San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Higgins of Happy Valley were in town the first of the week looking after business.

December 19, 1919

Tom Scott and Charles McVicker spent a week visiting at San Diego.

The Union school and the Little Temecula School closed last Friday for the Holidays and the teachers will attend the institute at Riverside. The children are glad because they will have a three-weeks vacation.

Henry Magee, of Sage, formerly superintendent at the Pauba Ranch, was a business caller in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ludy of Rainbow were shopping in town last week.

Mrs. Mary Higgins is again employed at the lunchrooms and Mr. Higgins is driving a truck for Henry Gray.

Mr. Higgins of Sage was a business caller in town this week.

Ed Vail of Los Angeles was last week in town and at the Pauba Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Freeman and children spent Sunday visiting Mrs. Freeman's father who is herding sheep at Murrieta.

Luis Utt of the Agua Tibia Ranch near Pala was here the other day on business.

Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Hoffman, superintendent at the Pala Indian Reservation were in town on their way to Riverside Wednesday.

Arthur Serval of Perris came in Saturday to visit Jacques Escallier, who is ill. Arthur is interested in a granite quarry at Perris.

Mrs. W. S. Weaver of Rainbow was in town shopping Tuesday.

Miss Libbie Nienke is now employed at the store of George A. Burnham and Son. Owing to the Christmas rush they had to employ an extra clerk.

After spending a week at San Diego, Charles McVicker and Tom Scott returned the first of the week, having had a pleasant outing.

Mrs. Stoner and some friends from Murrieta were shopping in town last week.

James E. Crew of the Pauba Ranch has begun digging his potatoes. The potatoes are looking better than expected